a million for PROGRESS

"Progress is our most important Product." This is and has been for a number of years, the slogan of a very prominent corporation and has undoubtedly been heard or seen by thousands--even millions--of people throughout the world by means of radio, television, and varied advertising media.

Since a few years ago, progress has been one of the most important products of Auburn Academy and will continue to be for several years to come.

Since Western Washington Missionary Academy, presently known as Auburn Academy, was founded in 1919, numerous changes have taken place. From the original frame buildings of yesterday, the academy campus has donned the new look of the modern brick buildings often seen today. These buildings are an advancement in the cause of furthering the scholastic atmosphere.

Much has been done for the purpose of educating the youth of today in a Christian atmosphere.

In view of this objective, Auburn began its vast building program. Today, Auburn Academy is the proud possessor of the most up-to-date educational facilities.

Much planning has resulted in two modern dormitories for housing the resident students. Meals can be enjoyed to a greater extent because of the sparkling kitchen facilities in the new cafeteria.

What does it take to have such a modern plant as can be witnessed at Auburn Academy?

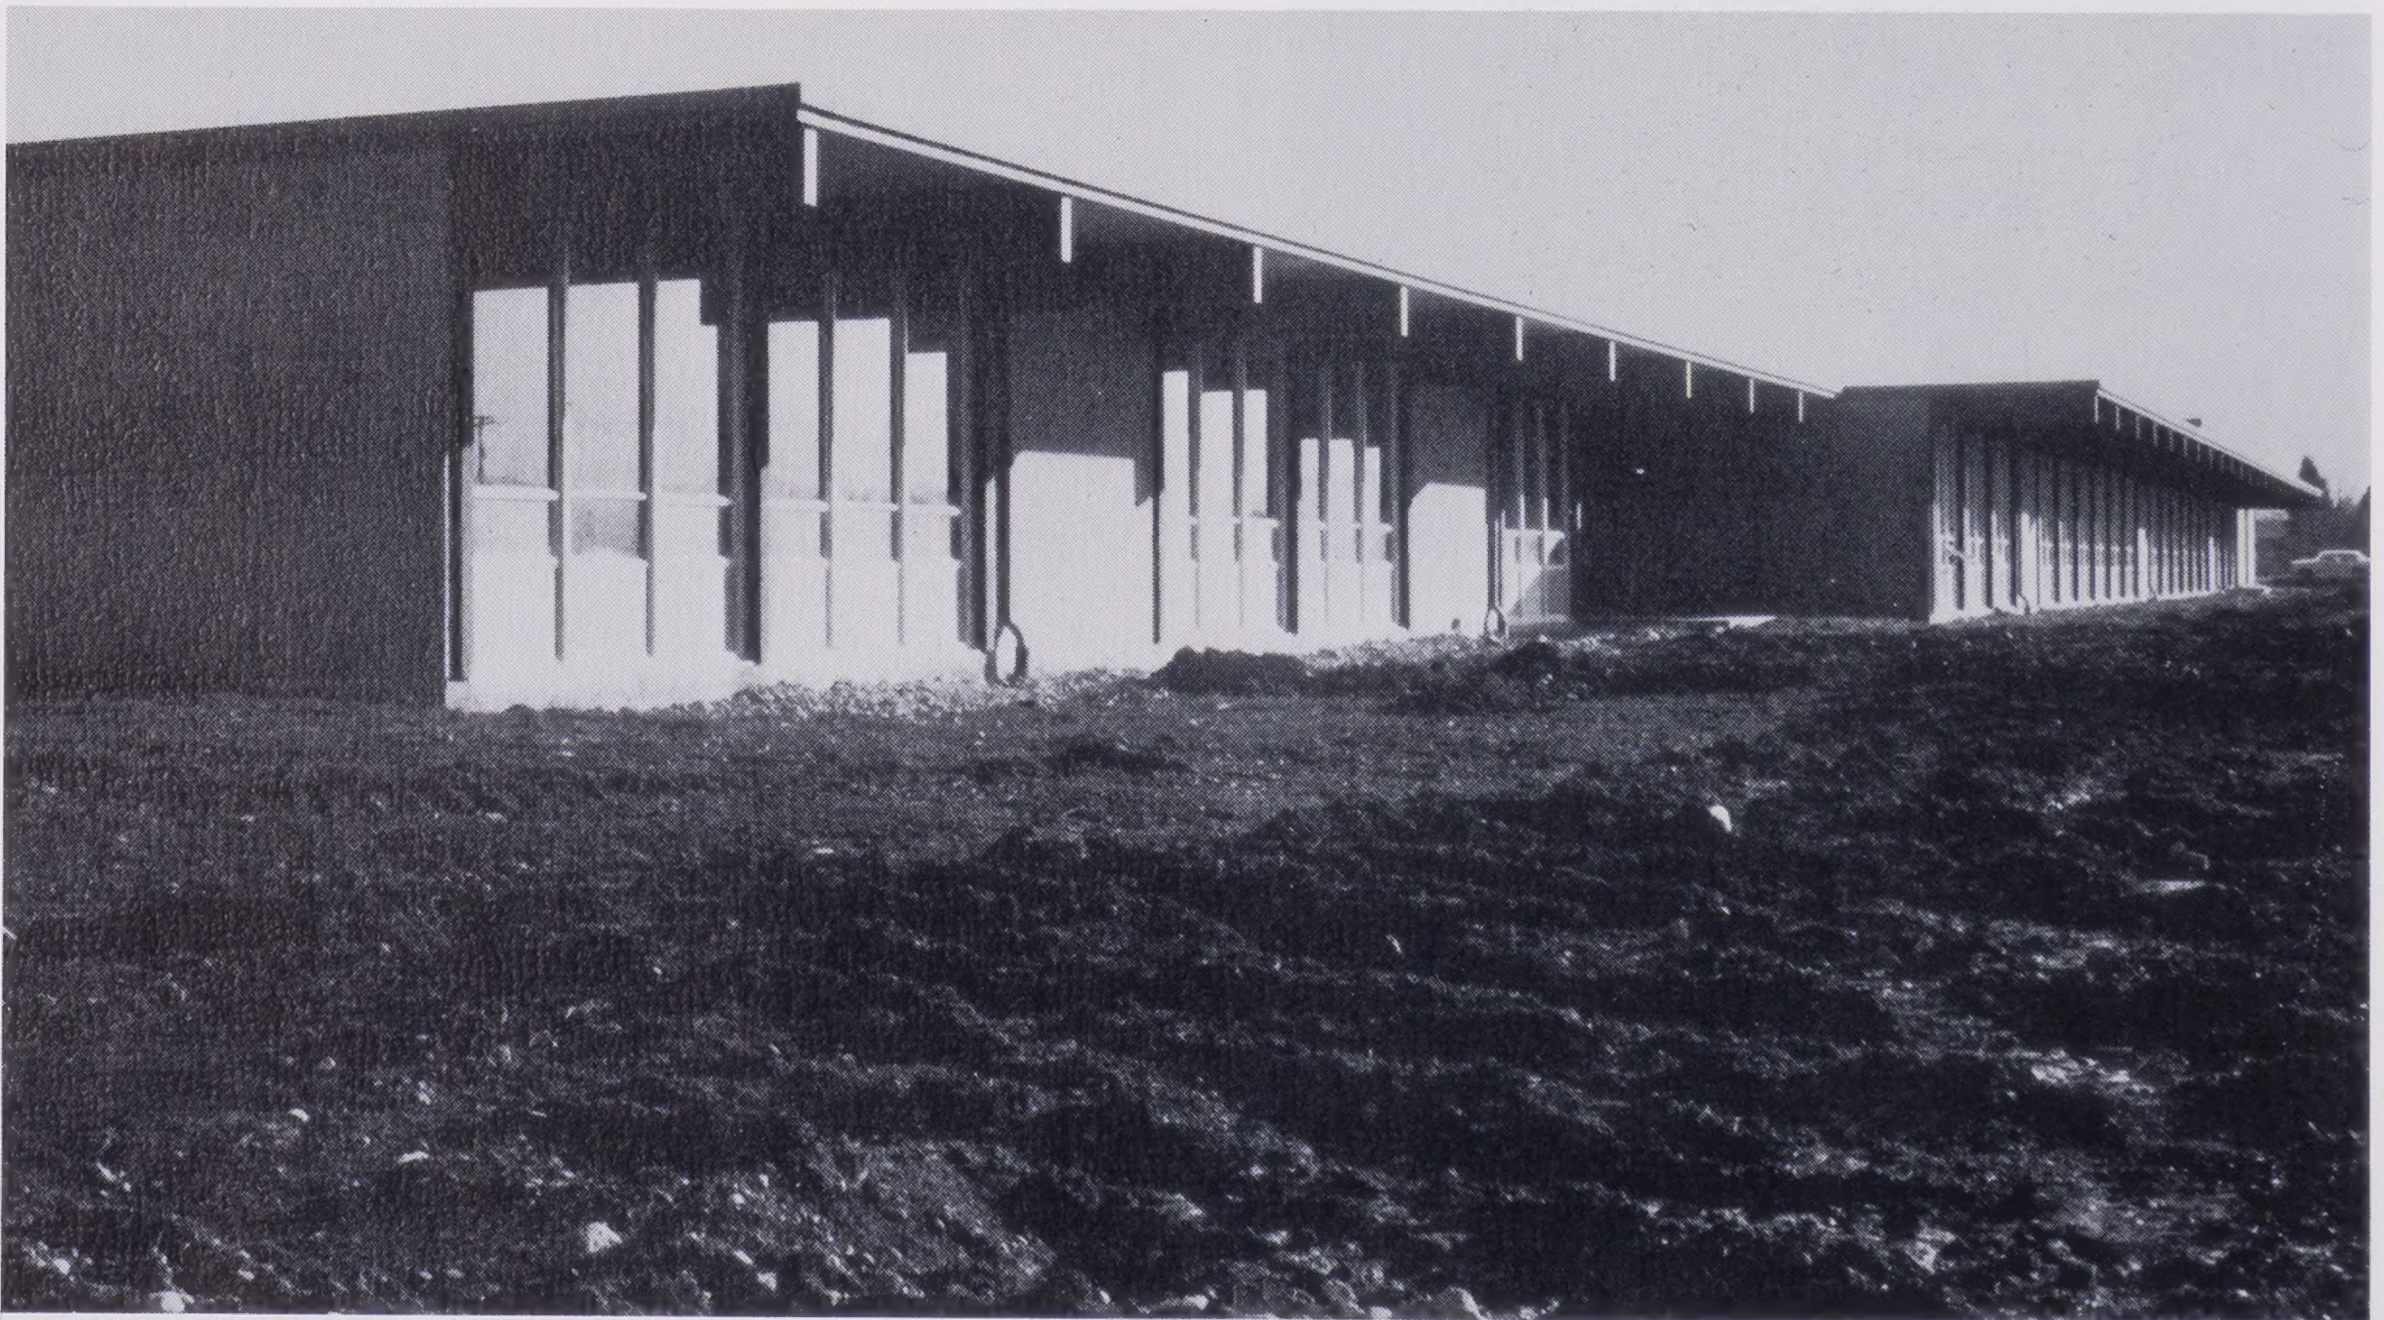

The answer is simple. Sacrifice! To provide such a splendid array of buildings, many people must band together to form an army to back up the financial supervisors of the school.

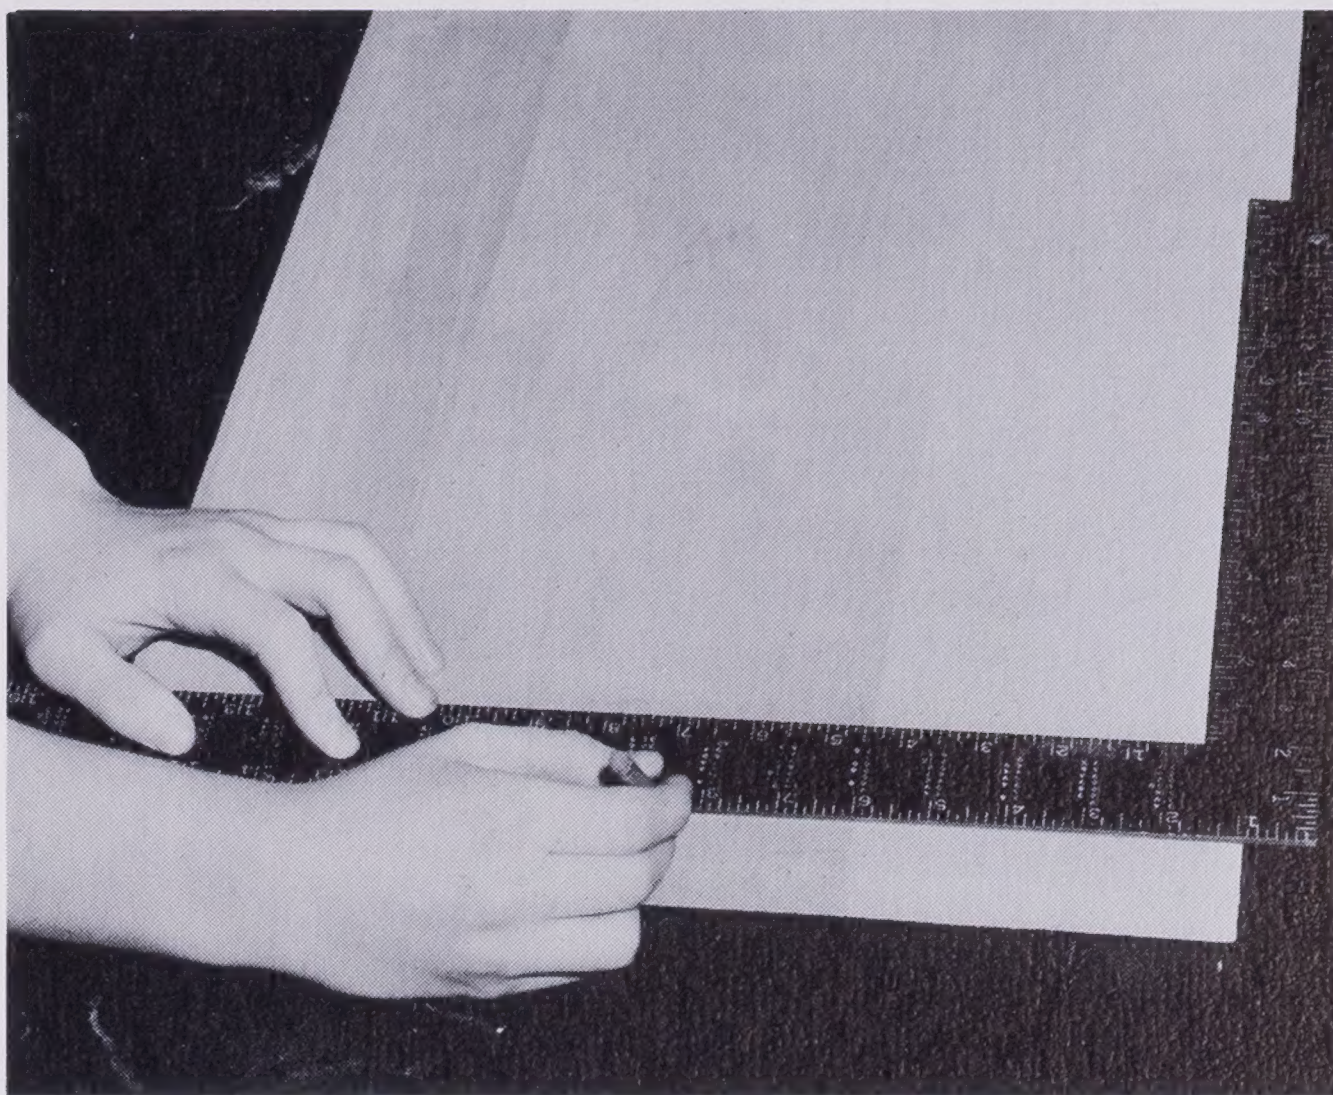

Without the effective support of parents and friends, there could be no modern administration building, no modern dormitories, and no luxurious dining facilities.

The students of Auburn Academy owe an unpayable debt to the dedicated Christian parents who have provided and sacrificed that these things might be here today.

Wait! Was it said, "unpayable?" Let it not be! Payment can be made through the sincere, scholastic efforts of each and every student who passes through the doors of this school.

Every graduate of Auburn Academy who becomes a success in society will be another installment toward the payment of the great debt owed to those who have made Auburn Academy what it is today.

dedication

TO ELDER AND MRS. L. E. McCLAIN

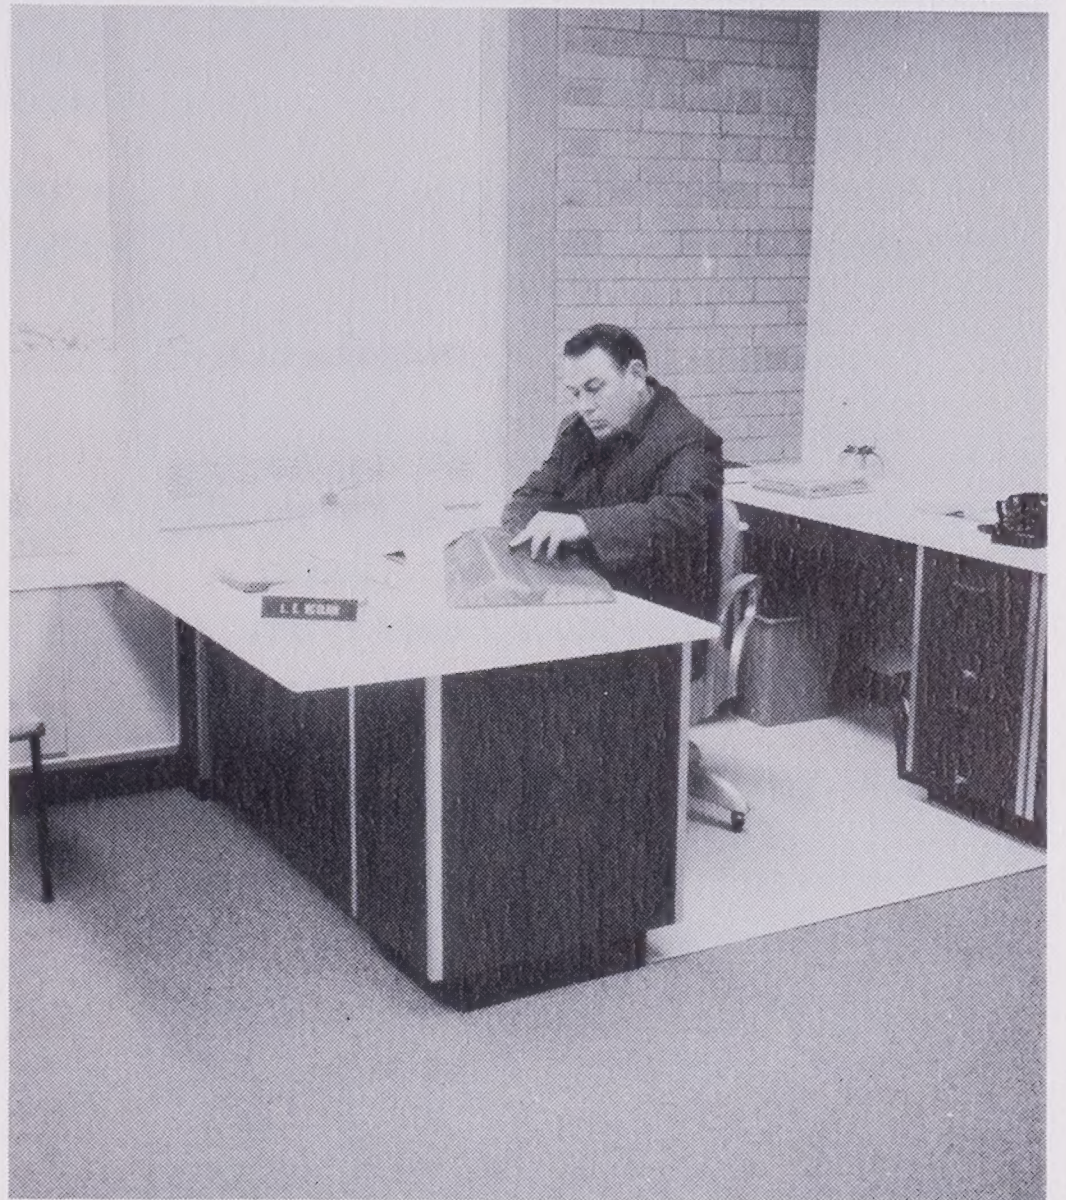

Whose refined Christian spirit has been of great inspirational value to Auburn Academy.

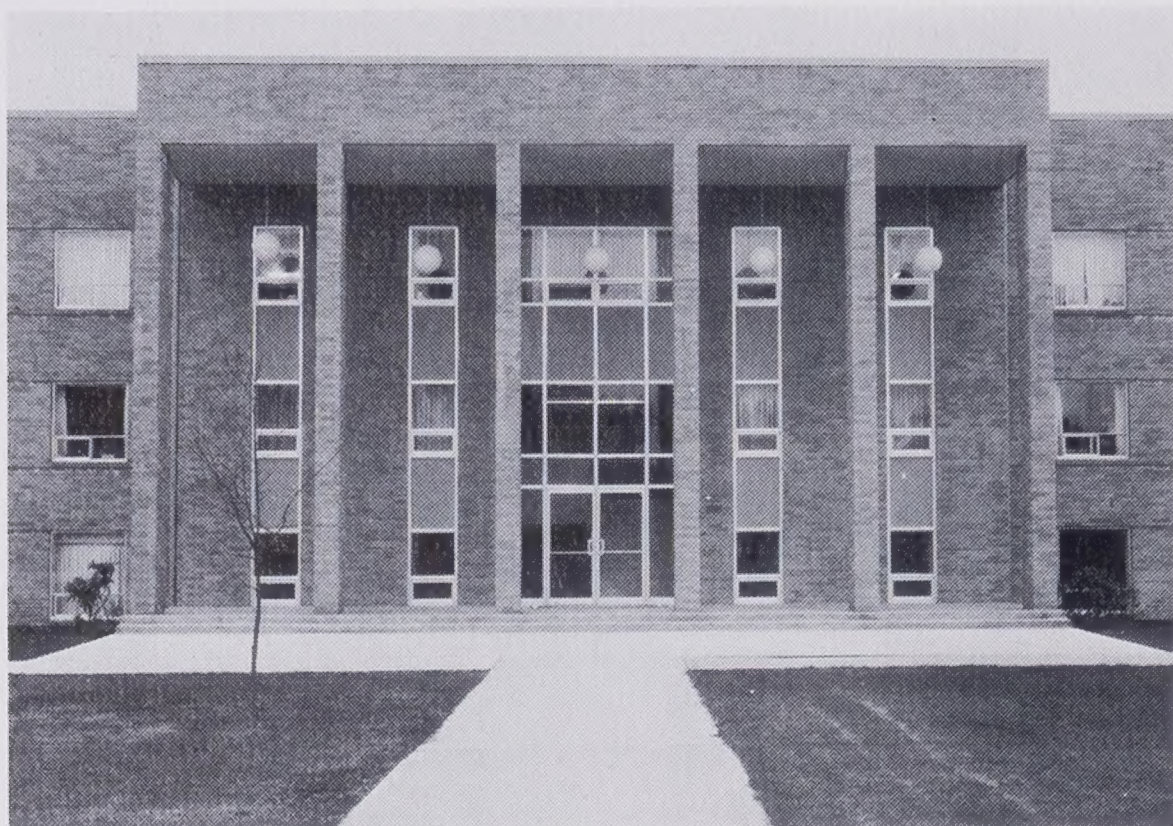

This yearbook is dedicated to a team. A team working together for the betterment of our school.

As principal, Elder McClain has sacrificed greatly for the school's immense building program. He has donated much time and money so present and future students of Auburn Academy may enjoy modern educational facilities.

The job of running a school smoothly and efficiently is difficult. Elder McClain and his wife, working together, have achieved this purpose.

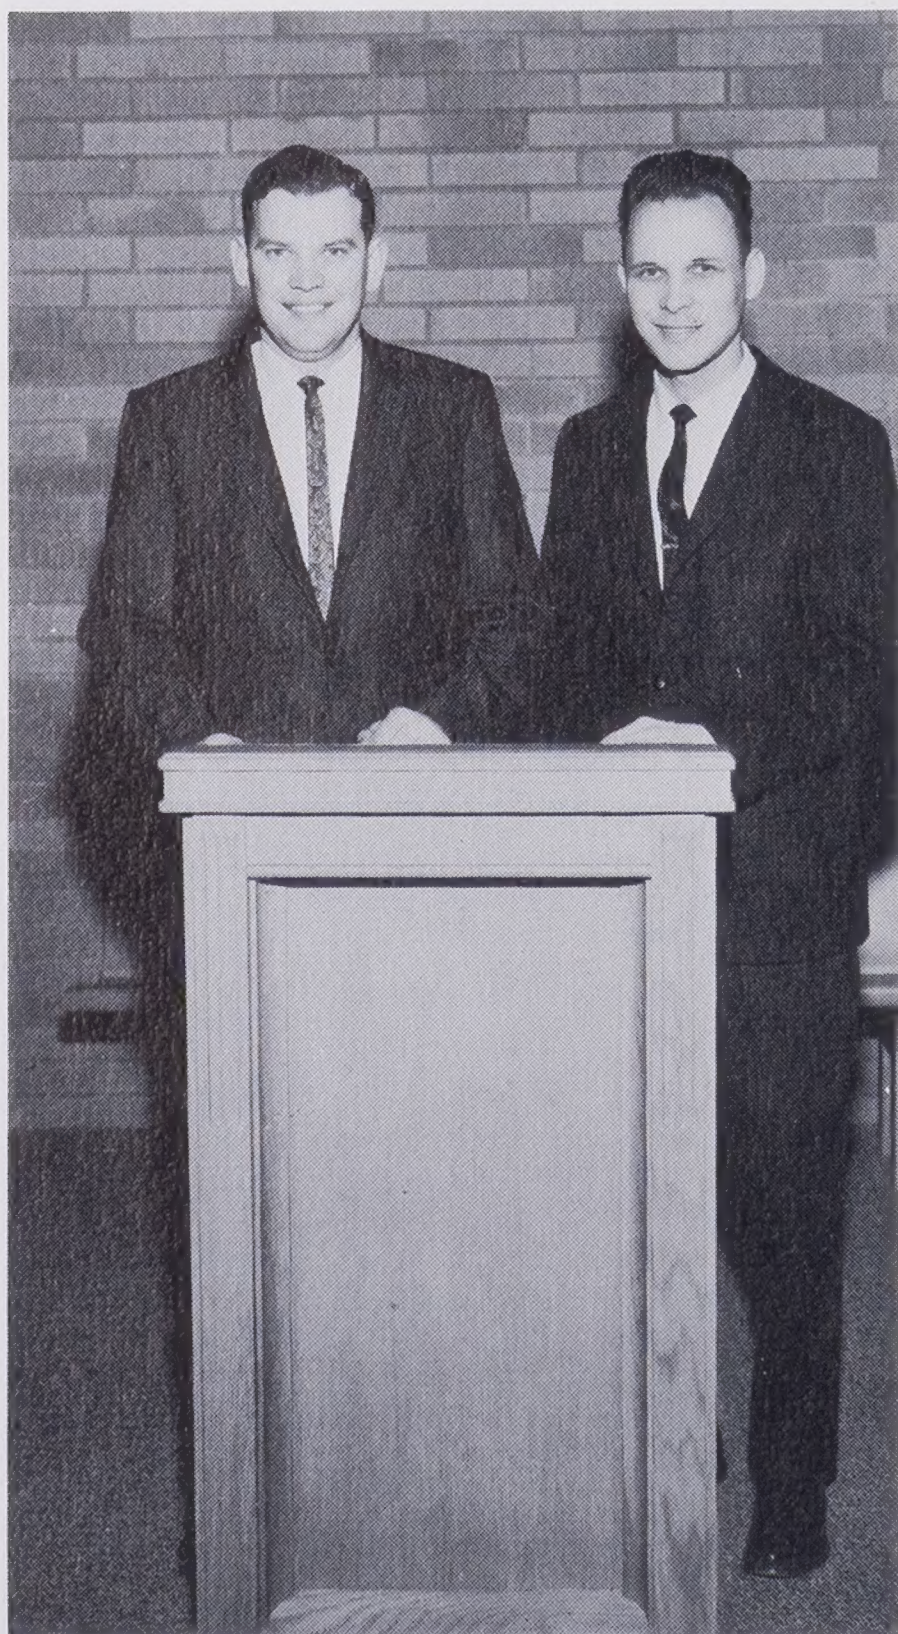

We, as a school and as the student body of '64 - '65, wish to express our gratitude to this dedicated couple.

The newly named Ruby Nelson Hall provides the girls of Auburn Academy with a home-like atmosphere.

Mr. Kermise Rowe and Mr. David Mummert, boys' deans, supervise dormitory activities.

Miss Frances McKnight, dean of Gibson Hall, and Mrs. Leona Altmiller, dean of Nelson Hall, share ideas on the mothering of their 150 daughters.

Nameless after three years of use, the boys' dormitory houses the gallant Knights of Casa Loma.

Elder Duane H. Anderson, Academy Pastor, and Elder Ed Norton, MV Sponsor, teach Youth Guidance and give counsel to students to help them grow spiritually and socially.

Mr. Elmer Lampson, Treasurer, keeps Auburn Academy's finances in good order.

Mr. H. F. Crays, registrar and teacher of Business Math and Bookkeeping, and Mrs. Laurinda Crays, English teacher, work together on a student's record.

Elder Vernon Berry, foreign language teacher, and Mrs. Lois Berry, school nurse, are an experienced missionary team.

Mr. William Lowe teaching Bible and English, and Mrs. Marie Lowe, teaching reading, English, senior health, and PE, compose a dedicated husband-wife teaching team.

Mr. Wesley Parker and Mr. Harold Weir enjoy the new Science Laboratory.

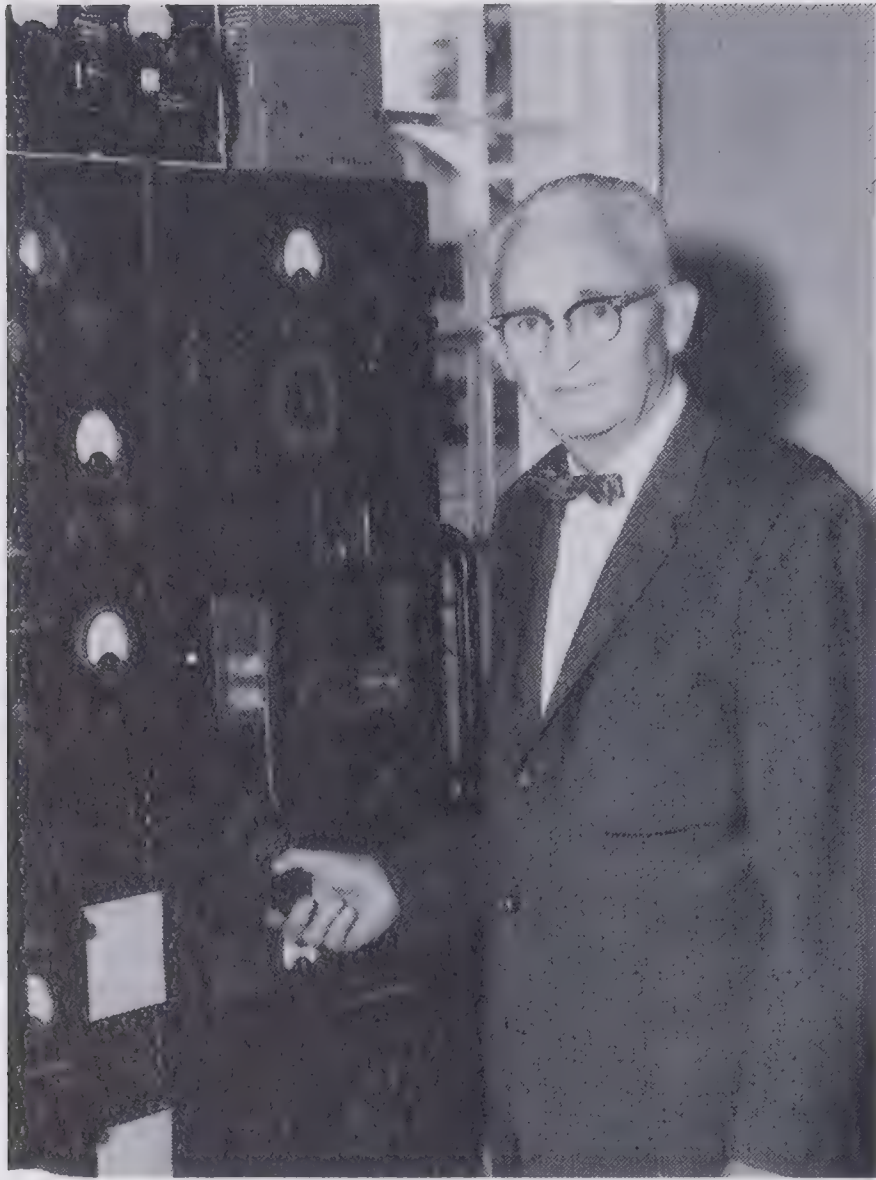

Mr. LeRoy Weber teaches piano, organ, and stringed instruments; Mr. James Hansen, voice and choir; Mr. Leland Quinn, band, band instruments, and Old Testament History.

Mr. Ray Leadbetter teaches English, Journalism, and Speech, and keeps the Rainier Echoes on schedule.

Mr. Ron Miller, teacher of History and Bible, and Mr. Larry Hasse, also a History teacher, view the world situation.

Elder C. L. Witzel bestows his knowledge of Carpentry and Electronics to several ambitious boys.

Mrs. Bessie Soule is responsible for the many good books in the library and teaches Home Economics to Auburn's future homemakers.

Mrs. Virginia Simonds gives instruction in Secretarial Science.

Mr. Ed Spady displays tools used in his Industrial Arts classes.

Mrs. Florence Aime and Mrs. Rosemarie Farver, food service directors, sample the menu.

Mrs. Wilma Mundy does well, keeping track of student laundry from week to week.

Mr. Don Mundy has much to do with beautifying the new campus.

Mr. Robert Farver --- keeper of the fold and the farm.

Making rounds with his punch clock, Mr. Clyde McClain, night watchman, tries the Ad Building door.

Eldon Spady, Shop Accountant; James Simpson, Manager; and Dan Graham, Salesman; competently control the business of Academy Wood Products.

TURN BACK

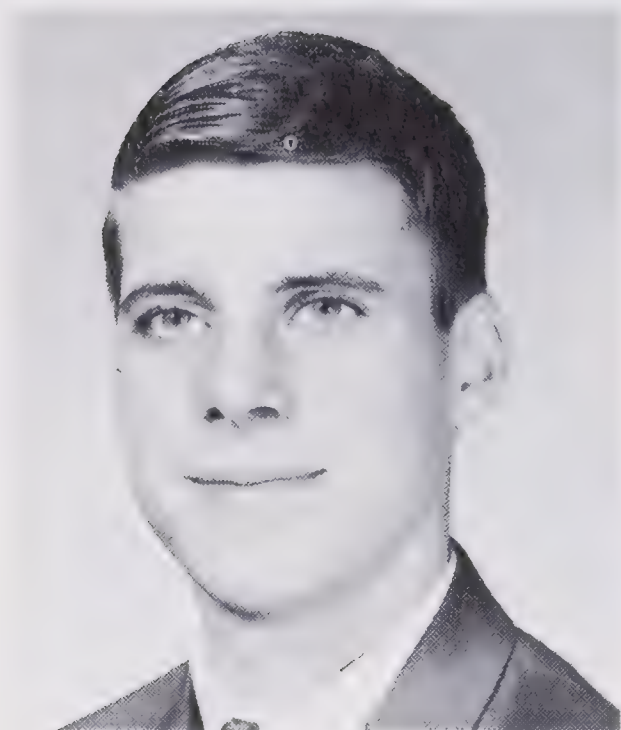

Turn back in memory's fleeting tome
To pages graced by seniors fair--
The blur of faces all well-known
In halls and classes, times of prayer.
The treasured smile, the lilting voice
Invoke the scenes of days gone by.
In solemn mood we made the choice
To follow truth and wrong deny.
And now the flights of memory soar
To song and joy of banquet scenes.
The special friends of youth restore
Fond hopes that flit in pleasant dreams.
The parties, trips and hours of play
Still glow and gleam when thoughts contrive
To stir the memory of the day
We joined the Class of '65.

"Smile, you're on Candid Campus!"

In years past, the Vista staff has sponsored a "snap" campaign in an attempt to gain interesting visual entertainment for the reader, but this year it has decided to try something different.

Yes, you guessed it! Candid Campus. This year the accent is not placed on posed stupidity or other general absurdities.

The intended purpose of this section is to portray the unrehearsed, everyday activities--humorous and serious alike---of the students and faculty populating the Auburn Academy Campus.

"What do you mean,
I'm all wet?"

"This place needs traffic signals!"

"Yes, Ed, I know it was a good bargain, but we don't need 200 bales of hay!"

"What do you mean there isn't any Santa Claus?"

"And then there was the monkey."

"Ralph! You're eating up the profits!"

"Let me think, I want something more."

"In MY opinion. . . ."

Courage, Mr. Parker!

In appreciation

We wish to give thanks to the parents and friends whose unlimited sacrifice has made possible the opportunity for present and future students of Auburn Academy to receive the best possible education through our new buildings and modern equipment. To these people, in a large measure, goes the credit for any success we may achieve.

Thank you! To you who made the 1965 RAINIER VISTA a success through your time and cooperation.

We as a staff have greatly enjoyed planning and working for it, and we sincerely hope that the 1965 RAINIER VISTA will bring you many pleasant memories of Auburn Academy in years to come.
